Service Center To Hold Open House Tomorrow

The doors of the Torrance Service Center, the new home of Civil Defense and of the Torrance Chapter of the Red Cross, will stand open tomorrow during informal evenings and an open house which will mark the official dedication of the building.

The Service Center is located on Torrance boulevard a half block west of Western avenue. Among the displays to be exhibited is a mock-up of a typical casualty center and a lighted exhibit depicting the services offered by the Red Cross during a disaster.

George Powell, assistant director of Civilian Defense and Mrs. Don Hyde, chairman of the Torrance Chapter of the Red Cross will serve as host and hostess during the open house.

Hours of the open house will be from 2 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m.

Some 38 local industries have been invited to send representatives to the open house to talk with Pflie Chief J. J. Jenner regarding an eight-hour course in fire fighting techniques to be taught to workers in the var-

Navy Reopens Enlistments To Local Men

Vincent Lawler, GMI, U. S. Navy recruiter, will be at the Torrance Post Office tomorrow, Friday, June 8, from 12 noon to 4 p.m. to accept applications for enlistments in the regular Navy. He has a limited number of openings in the Navy and will take applications for those desiring to enlist this month, he said.

"After mid-term in January so many young men volunteered for the Navy that we had to cut our quota. So if it's the Navy a young man wants, now is the time to make application and pick the day he wants to go," Lawler said.

At present about 75 per cent of all enlistees are receiving trade school training after 11 weeks of recruit training at San Diego.

ious local plants and factories. To be exhibited during the open house is a complete set of equipment used in the teaching of home nursing classes. The equipment was donated to the Red Cross recently by the Torrance Professional and Business Women's Club.

The Canteen Service of the Red Cross will serve coffee and doughnuts to the visitors.
